

Community Hospital utilizes several social media sites including, but not limited to, Facebook, Twitter and YouTube to provide the community with information regarding Community Hospital's programs, services, events and activities. The information is intended as a public service to offer readily accessible material for anyone who wishes to learn more about Community Hospital.

Community Hospital assumes no liability for content, comments or advertisements posted by third parties. Third party content, comments and/or advertisements do not necessarily reflect the views of Community Hospital.

Community Hospital welcomes comments and engagement from users on all social media platforms. Community Hospital reserves the right to remove content that violates this Social Media Policy or applicable laws. This policy prohibits posts containing the following:

- Encouragement of unlawful behavior;
- Profanity or obscene or offensive language;
- Political content or links thereto;
- Content or links to content of obscene or pornographic nature;
- Hate speech, bullying, threats, harassment, or intimidation;
- Social security numbers, credit card numbers, medical information or any other identifying personal information that could potentially be used to perpetrate identification fraud;
- Defamation of individuals, organizations or businesses;
- Commercial speech (i.e. solicitation of commerce);
- Links that are suspected of containing a virus.

Violation of this policy may result in blocking a user from Community Hospital's social mediums. Community Hospital is not able to continuously monitor all social media sites, and assumes no responsibility to immediately remove content that violates this Social Media Policy.